ISSUE NUMBER 32

MASJID NABWI - MADINAH

Assalamu-alaykum, I had another one of those days last week!

At the mosque there is one boy in my class who wastes all his time. He never learns and spends all day looking around.

My Ustad is great and always tries to motivate us. Yesterday he called the boy who doesn't learn. He began to explain to him how important it is for us to study.

The boy didn't like being talked to and looked at my ustad in an angry way. Everyone in the class saw this and went quiet.

I was shocked. How can someone look at their teacher like that? This was not just any teacher but was the kindest and nicest teacher I have ever seen.

My ustad forgave the boy and explained to him about respect. My teacher is so cool. He cares so much about us. Every teacher should be like him. PP

In Islam we must respect our elders in all situations. We can never behave badly towards them and must always speak to them in a kind and gentle manner.

Our parents deserve our utmost respect so we must always obey them and look after them. We must never hurt their feeling or make them feel sad.

Like our parents, teachers have a special place. They give us a very special gift called knowledge (Ilm). This gift brings us closer to Allah and makes us better humans.

The best of teachers were the prophets and Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) was the last of these great teachers. He taught us about Allah and living our lives. Even today, we love and respect the Prophet (pbuh) and follow his advice.

Many blessing you will collect if you show your teacher respect

Good education you must gain, A Successful life you will attain.

SEEKING KNOWLEDGE

The Muslims loved and respected the Prophet (pbuh). They would try and spend as much time with the Prophet (pbuh) and learn about Islam. Many people learned directly from the Prophet (pbuh) and this generation of people were known as the Sahabah. The Sahabah were referred to as the best of generations because they learned directly from the prophet (pbuh) and followed Islam fully.

After Islam spread, many people would travel great distances to learn from the Sahabah. They would travel vast distances to learn even a single hadith.

One great scholar at the time was xxxx. He heard that the great sahabi xxx knew a new hadith which he had directly heard from the Prophet (pbuh).

Xxxx wanted to hear this single hadith from the lips of this sahabi so he began to make preparations to travel. The journey was very long and before long, xxxx had started this journey in pursuit of this one hadith.

After travelling the huge distance, he finally arrived at the house of the sahabi. He did not want to disturb the Sahabi and decided to wait outside his house in the dusty desert street.

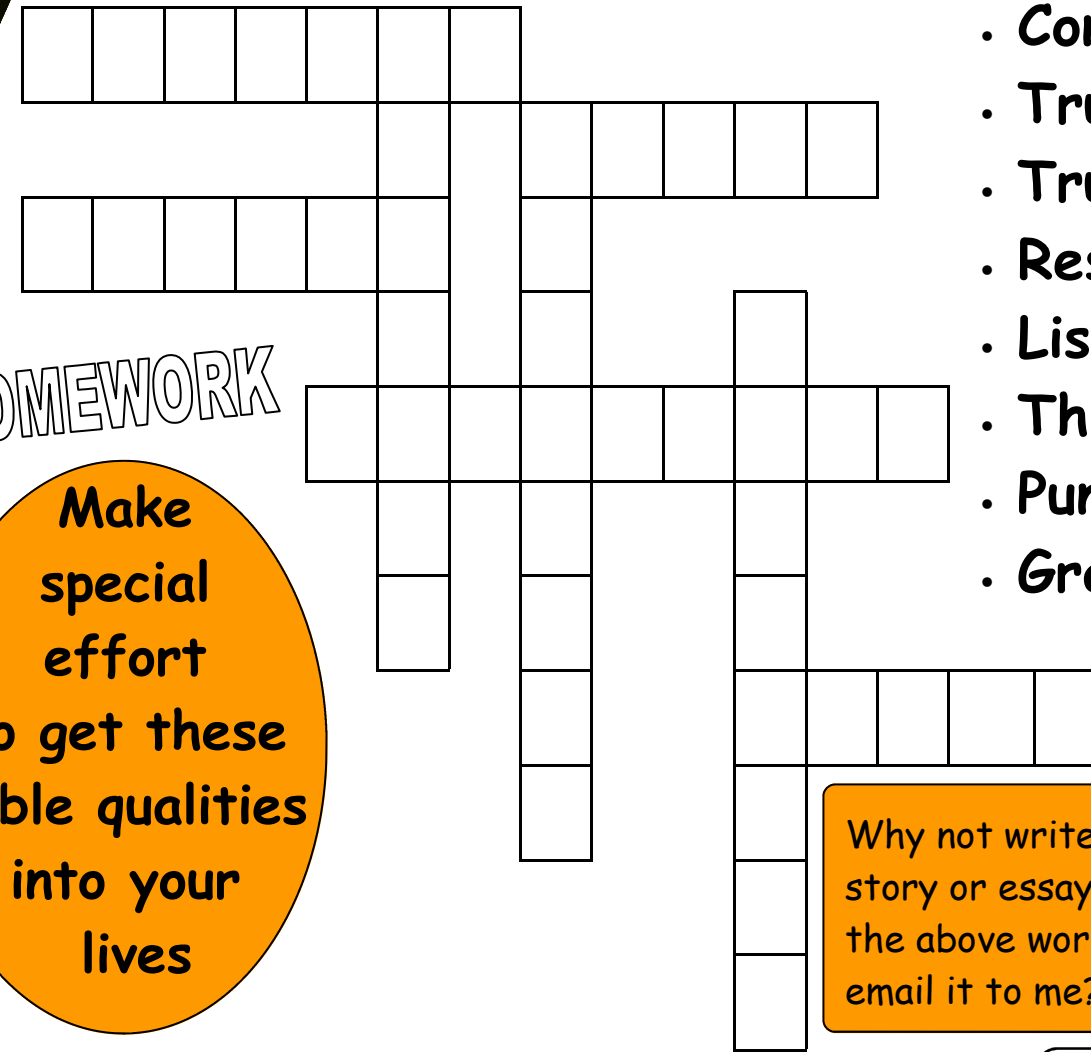

When the sahabi got out of his house he was surprised to find xxxx outside his house covered in dust. He invited him inside and asked him why he had made this long distance.

Xxxx said that he had travelled from xxxx to xxxx to learn a hadith and did not want to disturb this sahabi out of respect for him. Out of respect, he was happy to wait outside rather than disturb him.

Assalamu-alaykum, everyone from politicians to teachers talk about the word respect. The fact is that respect should reside in all our hearts. Islam deserves our fullest respect because it is guidance from Allah. We must follow Islam throughout our lives. PP

DID YOU KNOW?

Science had an idea that their forefathers were monkeys. This is known as 'Darwinism'. They have tried their best to prove this but have totally failed for many years.

The fact remains that Allah created everything including all humans. Allah tells us many facts in the Qur'an which scientists are finally proving to be true.
